Jade Palin
Victim Services Division Director
JPalin@cji.IN.gov

Jade Palin serves as director of ICJI's Victims Services division. She currently leads a team responsible for annually distributing over $60 million in grant funding. Jade's prior service was in social service programming, within both the public and private sector. Jade specializes in grant writing, quality assurance, and personnel management. Jade's greatest joy is in seeing the positive impact strength-based social service programming can have in the lives of others.
